

I do agree with NJ's Law with restrictions listed on the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. I am a tax payer. I have rights for privacy. I am expressing my right not to have others invade my privacy by signing up for the no call lists. I pay for the phone service and I am also entitled to have the right not to be bother when I explicated sign up for the no call list.

Thanks you,
Paul Yuen